TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

This is to certify that the Sudanese American Relief and Development Center (SARC) has been actively collaborating with the National University – Sudan (NUSU) over the past three years in various humanitarian and community-support initiatives. Throughout this period, SARC has demonstrated a strong commitment to serving vulnerable populations across Sudan, and its partnership with NUSU has significantly enriched the university's culture of social responsibility. A considerable number of NUSU's academic staff, administrative personnel, and students have participated in SARC-led humanitarian activities as volunteers, contributing their time, skills, and efforts to support communities affected by the ongoing crisis in the country. In recognition of the important role that SARC plays in humanitarian relief and sustainable development, the National University – Sudan has been hosting SARC's Sudan Office on its campus as a form of institutional contribution and support to its mission. The National University – Sudan values this partnership and looks forward to continued cooperation in advancing community well-being, resilience, and development. Should you require any further information, please do not hesitate to contact us. Sincerely,

Prof. Qurashi Mohamed Ali, BSc, MBBS, MSc, PhD, FRCPE
