To Whom It May Concern,

This letter confirms that the Sudanese American Relief & Development Center (SARC) has been an official partner of UMR in Sudan for the past two years, working with UMR implementing humanitarian and relief projects.

Through this partnership, SARC has helped UMR deliver critical support to vulnerable communities, including medical assistance, food distributions, and aid for internally displaced families. Their strong local presence and coordination have been essential to our work on the ground in Sudan.

UMR greatly values this partnership and the positive impact it continues to achieve. For further information, please contact us.

Sincerely,

Muhielidin Awad Salih
